We are pleased to offer added education in conjunction with our International Convention. All classes will be held on the second floor conference level-south tower, of the Golden Nugget Hotel, Las Vegas. This year please note that we will be serving lunch with every one of these classes. If you elect to take an afternoon session only, please remember to attend lunch before your class. Lunch will be served promptly at 12:00 noon each day, please check the monitor for room locations. Please note ware is included for all classes and a supply list will be sent upon receipt of your registration.

Class descriptions:

Sylvia Clayton-Saturday, Jan. 17th 8:00 AM Christmas on a plate: utilizing the new red and orange by Hobby Colorobia.

Nancy Kincaid-Saturday, Jan. 17th 1:00 PM Jack Frost: A fun and great way to show how to use Mayco Stroke&Coat and mask.

on other techniques to complete this compelling treasure from the jungle. A special set of Sharon's Taklon brushes (valued at $46.00) will be provided for each participant

David Hoff-David will be teaching a morning session and an afternoon session - The Liner Brush Fully Explored. A variety of pressure type strokes will be explored and used in combinations creating our old world design. Both projects are traditional in design and lend themselves for easy repeating and teaching to others. A #4 Liner Brush is included and if both sessions are taken a second brush will be given out as a gift too. There will also be Door Prizes.

David Hoff AM-Sunday, Jan. 18th 8:30 AM Country Charm in Blues: exploring monotone color.

David Hoff PM-Sunday, Jan. 18th 1:00 PM American Old World Bird: explore complementary colors used in design.
